OVERVIEW

Is Thai Buddhism something you have always wanted to know and learn more about? This half day session will introduce you to the history of Thai Buddhism together with traditional meditation used for centuries in Thailand. Learn the foundations and techniques that have been introduced by the master of meditation, and also partake in the Thai Buddhism rituals.

PROGRAM DETAIL

In the morning, your guide will take you to "Wat Luang Pu Supha", one of the three most important temples in Phuket, built by Luang Pu Supha, the famous master of Thai Buddhism meditation. Here, the guide will give you an insight story about this temple, its founder, and even meditation techniques similar to those taught by Mahasi Sayadaw, based on four foundations of Mindfulness described in the Maha Satipatthana Sutta. Then proceed to renowned "Wat Chalong" Monastery built during the reign of King Rama V where you will join the daily rituals practiced at the temple on a private basis. And finally, a short drive from there will take you to "Wat Phra Phuttha Mingmongkol Eaknakakeeree", with the biggest Buddha statue in South East Asia built on the hilltop and a breathtaking view auspicious for meditation.
