

STREET FOOD FOR ALL YOUR SENSES
IN PHUKET TOWN
THPKSF
HALF DAY

PROGRAM DETAIL

Experience the delights of Thai street food on this tour of Phuket Town, which will take guests to small side-street stalls. Many of the food stalls have been run by the same family for generations; families whose ancestors brought their culinary heritage to the island from places like India, China and Malaysia, adapting recipes to suit the local produce available, and tweaking them slowly over time to please their customers, whilst absorbing other culinary influences in the process.

During the walk, guests will explore a variety of food displayed on stalls and carts. Enjoy a Phuket dim sum breakfast served with scented smell of local coffee “copi”. Discover the concept of “khao kaeng”, local Thai food offered on trays, and learn about the various different kinds of curry pastes used in Thai cuisine. Continue the walk to the old Post Office Museum for a visit, then proceed to the historical avenues of the old town, grabbing a sweet roti along the way. Moving onwards, guests can delight their taste buds at a local food court with a dish of famous “Hokkien” noodles and some satay. After that, visit a small food cart selling ‘ar-pong’ -a fried crispy crepe, a local specialty not to be missed!

Finally, the tour ends at a local downtown fruit market where guests will be able to sample the local tropical fruit and “khanom khai hong”, a round crispy snack. (L)
